

2018 Outstanding Women of Today Outstanding Woman of Tomorrow

Rachel Boelter

- Associate Broker with Hudson Peters Commercial
- Graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Masters in Interior Architecture from Kansas State University in 2009
- TREC Licensed agent in 2015
- Rising Star Award in 2017
- Active with the Richardson Chamber and Richardson Young Professionals
- Exceptional leader with great professionalism and vision

Leah Hadsell

- Co-Founder of Tangram Sky Interactive
- BA in Advertising and Public Relations and Master's in Organizational Leadership from Evangel University in Springfield, MO
- Came to Dallas in 2012 to manage direct digital marketing campaigns
- As VP of Tangram Sky, Leah manages digital initiatives for small businesses across several industries
- Loves to run long distance with 10 half marathons under her belt
- Volunteers for a nonprofit dedicated to breaking the cycle of incarceration teaching a 6-month program to 25 female inmates

Shelby Rose Reece

- General Manager of “Texas” restaurant in The Shire
- Played 4 years of varsity basketball in high school – MVP for 2. Coach says she was the most special player ever to be coached.
- Tried college in California but missed Texas and family so returned and immersed herself in the restaurant business
- Her welcoming nature and shining personality make her a natural at customer relations and a customer favorite
- Married and aspiring singer/songwriter, Jarrod, in 2014